IRVING WEBER ASSOCIATES, INC.
ANNOUNCES PAYMENT OF
THE 54TH WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVIDEND UNDER THEIR MANAGEMENT.

Smithtown, New York (April 28, 2005) – Irving Weber Associates, Inc. (IWA) known for their specialty programs for dry cleaners, linen supply, uniform rental and commercial launderers - today released the payment of their 54th consecutive Workers' Compensation Safety Group Dividend to eligible policyholders in their program.

Adam Weber, Vice President of Irving Weber Associates, states "We are very proud to continue our tradition of consistent dividend payments to the participants of our national workers' compensation insurance safety group. Without any additional cost of association membership or group management fees, this 10% case dividend is in addition to some of the largest up front rate deviations and premium discounts that we have ever been in a position to offer. For example – some eligible policyholders have seen rate deviations as high as 15%, with additional premium discounts and credits amounting to as much as
